

CURSO AVANZADO DE FORMACIÓN PARA JUECES Y FISCALES

BOLIVIA, COLOMBIA, ECUADOR Y PERÚ EN LA LUCHA CONTRA LA CORRUPCIÓN Y OTROS GRAVES DELITOS

Bogotá, January 30 – February 4, 2005 Results of the questionnaire

Within the framework of the project 'Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru in the Fight against Corruption and related Serious Crimes', UNICRI organized a second advanced training course aimed at eighteen judges and public prosecutors chosen amongst the most highly qualified figures of the anti-corruption offices of Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru.

At the end of the meeting all participants were asked to fill out an evaluation questionnaire, which shows, overall, the accomplishment and fulfillment of all the objectives as fixed by UNICRI

The contents of the course, its interactive methodology and both national and international experts who acted as trainers, received great praise from participants.

In particular, participants, answered to the following questions as shown:

CONCLUSION

The questionnaire also included open questions regarding topics that participants would like to carefully explore during the follow up course. Most of participants suggested UNICRI deepening the following themes:

- Trafficking in human beings
- o International conventions
- o Transnational corruption and other severe crimes
- o Investigative techniques
- o International criminal law and human rights
- o Cyber crime
- o Ethics
- International criminal court.

Moreover, the questionnaire asked participants to give UNICRI suggestions on entities, of the four countries involved in the training course, where to distribute and develop the program of cooperation. The following answers give a view of the variety of responses:

- o Schools of crown prosecutors
- o District attorneys' offices
- o Academies of magistracy and Higher Council of Magistracy
- Judicial police
- o National (of the four countries involved) Congress
- o Universities and Town Halls
- o Non governmental organizations
- o UIAF: Unidad de Informacion y Analisis Financiero
- o FELCN: Fuerza Especial de Lucha Contra el Narcotrafico y otros fiscales.
